

Daily Devotions for the Week of April 19

Monday (4/19): Acts 4:5-12

In what ways, have our rulers and elders rejected the existence of Jesus?
Pray for God to raise up leaders who seek justice, mercy, and righteousness.

Tuesday (4/20): Psalm 23: 1-2

Focus on the opening sentences of the 23rd Psalm.

What is missing in your life that Jesus can fulfill?

Where can you find green pastures and still waters today to contemplate how the Lord is your shepherd?

Wednesday (4/21): Psalm 23: 3-4

What can Jesus do to restore peace in your soul?

How is Jesus your rod and your staff through dark moments?

Thursday (4/22): Psalm 23: 5-6

How can you prepare a table of graciousness to your enemies today?

Friday (4/23): 1 John 3:16-24

How is 1 John 3: 16 similar to John 3: 16?

Contemplate how deep God's love is for you and others today.

Saturday (4/24): John 10:11-18

What did Jesus mean in verse 16 when he said that he has other sheep that do not belong to this fold?

Do you think it is possible for humanity to be of one flock?

Sunday (4/25): Worship in person, by Zoom or online.
